

COMMERCIAL FISHING TRAINING COURSE

NEW CREW SAFETY, SURVIVAL & BASIC SKILLS

MAY 9, 10 & 11, 2024 – 8 AM TO 5 PM

CHATHAM, MA

APPLY ONLINE: WWW.CAPECODFISHERMEN.ORG/FISHERMEN-TRAINING

Are you interested in working outdoors in an exciting and challenging environment where no two days are the same?

Learn the skills and knowledge that can help you work safely on the back of a commercial fishing vessel at this introductory course offered by the Cape Cod Commercial Fishermen's Alliance in partnership with the Commercial Fisheries Center of Rhode Island.

Scan to Apply

Free three-day course includes Maritime Safety & Survival, Basic Skills, Job Expectations, and Introduction to Local Fisheries. Lunch provided.

- Man-overboard procedures
- Fire fighting and emergency communications
- Flooding and pump operation
- Flares and EPIRBs
- Survival Suits and life rafts
- Basic knots used on fishing vessels
- Common fishing gears used in Cape Cod's fisheries and what species they catch
- Hazards associated with different fishing gear
- How fishing gear is set and retrieved
- Safe places to stand on deck and where not to be
- How fish are handled and processed on board
- Drill Conductor Certification
- Connect with captains looking to hire crew

